

Music Director St Paul's Mill Hill, London

We are a friendly, Anglican church in North London looking for an experienced Music Director who will continue to develop the worshipping life of our church, play the organ in our 9.30am service and rehearse our adult and junior choirs weekly, with the potential to build on our choral tradition with St Paul's Choral Society.

Salary circa £5,000, depending on qualifications and experience, additional fees for weddings and funerals. Our two-manual Compton was re-built by George Sixsmith in 2008.

Ideally starting September. For more information please email revjoannajames@btinternet.com
